El Nido Recreation Program Cancelled
A community recreation agreement between the City of Torrance, the school district, and the City and County of Los Angeles for a recreation program of El Nido was cancelled last week, according to a board of education announcement.

Reason for the action was the excessive price the City of Torrance would be forced to provide for the program, it was reported.
at El Camino College under the sponsorship of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board with cooperation of other realty groups in the area.

Famed Chorus to Sing at Concert Here

BATON CHAMP TO SHARE SPOTLIGHT AT CONCERT

The North American Male Chorus, directed by Ralph E. Webster, will team up with the Torrance Area Youth (Senior) Band in a joint concert Friday night, December 9, in the Torrance High School Auditorium.
Also appearing on the program will be Ted Otis, national champion baton twirler.
Soloists for the concert will be Jackie Beeman, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Beeman of Torrance, and J. R. Cole, pianist.
This musical event is being sponsored by the Torrance Rotary Club who will turn over the proceeds to the Youth Band to purchase a bassoon.
The North American Male Chorus is a group of thirty-eight men, all with professional singing training, and all employees of North American Aviation, Incorporated. The group has appeared at the Hollywood Bowl, Philharmonic Auditorium, Pan Pacific Auditorium, Wilshire-Ebell Theater, Los Angeles Civic Southern California. The chorus was winner last year in competition with male choruses from all of Southern California and is acclaimed by critics to be one of the finest organizations of its type in the west. They sing a varied program consisting of classical, religious, and operatic selections, usually ending with a group of negro spirituals.
The concert this Friday night will begin at 8:15 p.m. Tickets are on sale by band members, their parents, members of the Youth Band-sponsored All-Girls Baton Corps, and members of the Torrance Rotary Club.

SONGSTERS . . . The renowned Southland singing group, the North American Male Chorus will share the spotlight with the Torrance Area Youth Band and Ted Otis, National Baton Twirling Champ at a concert here Friday night. The benefit concert is sponsored by the Rotary Club.

Rose Parade Bus Schedule Told For January 2

Bus service direct to the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade on January 2 has been arranged by M. A. Chamberlain, manager of the Torrance Municipal Bus Lines.
Buses will leave the city hall at 6:30 a.m. the morning of the parade. Passengers will be taken to within a half block of the parade route. Tickets for the round trip are $2.50, Chamberlain said.
Tickets for grandstand seats which are located a few steps from the point the buses will discharge passengers may be purchased at the city clerk's office for $5 each, he said.
The buses will leave Pasadena a half-hour after the parade.
For reservations and tickets call at the city clerk's office in the city hall or at the bus department office at 1205 Huber street.
